

ASSISI AND ORVIETO

Art, Faith & Timeless Villages

Discover the authentic soul of Umbria through two of its most enchanting towns, where medieval heritage, extraordinary art and breathtaking landscapes come together in perfect harmony.

Begin your journey in Assisi, the birthplace of St. Francis. Accompanied by an expert Tour Guide, explore its charming medieval streets and visit the magnificent Basilica of St. Francis and Basilica of St. Clare, discovering the extraordinary history, art and spirituality that have shaped the town through the centuries. The visit also includes the places connected to Carlo Acutis, adding a contemporary dimension to Assisi's deep spiritual heritage.

The journey continues to Orvieto, dramatically perched on a volcanic cliff overlooking the Umbrian countryside. During a guided visit of the historic centre, admire the spectacular Duomo, one of Italy's finest Gothic masterpieces, and discover elegant streets, artisan workshops and centuries-old traditions.

A beautifully curated full-day experience combining art, history, spirituality and authentic Italian charm.
